The President's Award

The award shall be given to a volunteer member who has made a substantial contribution to the Society and shall be presented at the Annual Meeting.

The award was created in 2005 and the first recipient was:

2005 Mrs. Betty Speirs

In Recognition of the tremendous contribution that she has made over more than 40 years towards the teaching of Scottish country dancing in Montreal. Her dedication has touched the lives of many and the Society is most grateful.
